Maya was a little bird with a sweet voice.
She loved to sing on sunny mornings.

One day, she saw a puppy sitting alone, looking lost and scared.
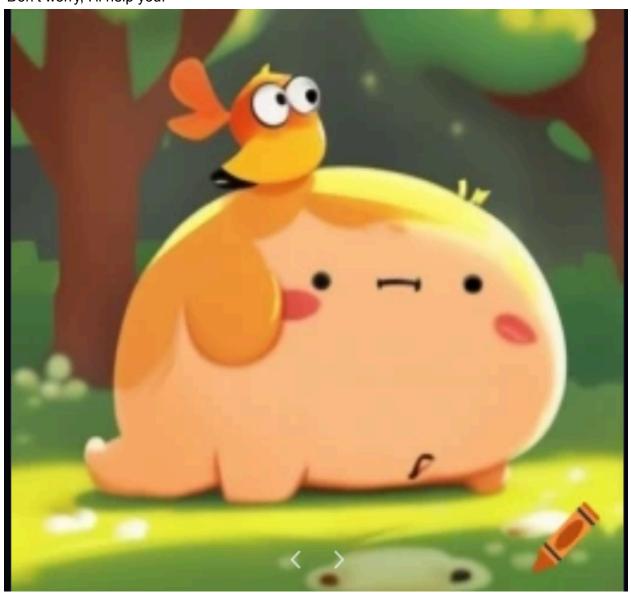

Maya flew down and said,

"Don't worry, I'll help you!"

She flew above the trees and guided the puppy back to his home.
His tail wagged with joy.

 “Thank you, kind friend!” he barked.

Maya felt warm inside.
 Helping others feels even better than singing. 🐦🐶
